

EIC Survey #3
All Reponses
For Service Providers

Question 1

Community	Please rate your level of satisfaction with the ease and convenience of communication and coordination with program grantees over the course of planning work. Please include comments in the space below.	Response
12244156	Reponse: No response	5
12273404	Response: No response	4

Question 2

Community	For entities where your satisfaction was lacking, what do you suggest could be done to improve the relationship?
12244156	No response
12273404	No response

Question 3

Community	Please rate your level of satisfaction with the value and assistance that you provided program grantees over the course of planning work.
12244156	3
12273404	5

Question 4

Community	What did you learn through this pilot program that will result in improvements to the planning process for the next round of grantees?
12244156	I don't think the grantees realized (nor did I) the tremendous amount of work that was required on their part and how little they would get back as a result.
12273404	units of government need to examine their purchasing policy before appointing EI coordinator...particularly if that position will be funded from grant dollars.

Question 5

Community	What suggestions do you have for the next round of grantees to improve the process and outcomes?
12244156	Don't make them enter monthly utility data. What is the point of having a monthly breakdown other than a ridiculous, long, data entry process. Annual usage works as well for what you're doing with the data. Making it larger and more cumbersome does not make it more impressive.
12273404	It may be helpful to have a project management tool available to the next round of pilot communities that spells out processes and provides timelines for all OEI requirements

Question 6

Community	Any other feedback that you would like to offer to improve the program?
12244156	No response
12273404	Looking forward to the final product. Will they be actual plans? or simply lists that become shelf products?

Question 7

Community	For Focus on Energy only: Please rate the preparedness of EIC grantees regarding their ability to identify projects for the EECBG application relative to non-EIC grantees.
12244156	2 (grantees were better prepared than non-grantees)
